

Deliveries to Messe Stuttgart

Attention! Very important:

Messe Stuttgart will not accept any consignments.

Please only address your consignments to your exhibition stand (1.- as described below) in case you are certain that someone is at the stand to accept the consignment.

As experience shows the various courier services hardly ever observe delivery dates. If there is nobody at your stand, Messe Stuttgart will not accept your consignment, i.e. it will be returned.

If you cannot make sure that there is a contact person at the booth during the delivery time, you can use the acceptance service of our forwarding agent. Therefore you can use address 2.

Notify the consignment with the following information to fairs.stuttgart@dbschenker.com: Event, hall, booth, dimensions of consignment, weight, day of provision of booth, invoice recipient.

The forwarding agent will invoice additional costs for acceptance, storage and delivery of consignments to you. Should you have any questions on delivery or costs, please contact the forwarding agent: DSV Fairs & Events GmbH, Tel.: +49 711 18560-3300.

You can call DSV Fairs & Events GmbH on Tel. +49 711 18560-3300 and have the consignment be brought to your exhibition stand.
